CASE NO. 2:21-CR-0007-JAM

AMENDED STIPULATION REGARDING
EXCLUDABLE TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY
TRIAL ACT; [PROPOSED] ORDER

DATE: April 19, 2022

TIME: 9:30 a.m.

COURT: Hon. John A. Mendez

STIPULATION

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and the above-captioned defendants, by and through their respective counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

1. By previous order, this matter was set for status on April 19, 2022.
2. By this stipulation, defendants now move to continue the status conference until July 12, 2022, and to exclude time between April 19, 2022, and July 12, 2022, under Local Codes T2 and T4.
3. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

1 a) The grand jury returned an indictment in this case on January 28, 2021. Fourteen
2 defendants are named in the publicly filed indictment. The names of two additional defendants
3 who have not yet been arrested are redacted from the publicly filed indictment.

4 b) On April 13, 2021, defendant Baudelio Vizcarra, Jr. made his initial appearance in
5 the case and was arraigned on the Indictment. ECF No. 137. On May 4, 2021, the Court signed
6 an order substituting attorney Sanjay Sobti as counsel of record for defendant Vizcarra. ECF No.
7 160.

8 c) On May 11, 2021, the Court signed an order substituting attorney Kresta Daly as 9 counsel of record for defendant Christian Romero. ECF No. 162.

10 d) On January 4, 2022, defendant Rosario Zamora Rojo made his initial appearance
11 on a criminal complaint. See 2:21-MJ-00153-DB, ECF No. 5.

12 e) On March 3, 2022, the grand jury returned a superseding indictment adding
13 Rosario Zamora Rojo as a defendant and adding a money-laundering conspiracy charge against 14 defendants Jose Lopez-Zamora and Erika Zamora Rojo. ECF No. 276.

15 f) The government has represented that the discovery associated with this case to 16 date includes approximately 7,720 pages of materials, including investigative reports,
17 photographs, search warrant materials, and other documents, as well as voluminous audio and
18 video recordings and approximately 978 recorded phone calls intercepted pursuant to the Title III
19 wiretap in this case. All of this discovery has been either produced directly to counsel and/or 20 made available for inspection and copying.

21 g) Counsel for defendants need additional time to review the voluminous discovery
22 in this case, to conduct independent factual investigation, to research trial and sentencing issues,
23 to consult with their clients, and to otherwise prepare for trial.

24 h) Counsel for defendants believe that failure to grant the above-requested
25 continuance would deny them the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into 26 account the exercise of due diligence.

27 i) The government does not object to the continuance.
28

1           j)       In addition, this case is “complex” within the meaning of 18 U.S.C.
2       § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(ii) [Local Code T2], as this Court previously found in its February 10, 2021
3       Order (ECF No. 103) and subsequent orders.

4           k)       Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the 5       case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the 6       original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

7           l)       For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161,
8       et seq., within which trial must commence, the time period of April 19, 2022 to July 12, 2022,
9       inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4]
10      and 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(ii) [Local Code T2] because it results from a continuance
11      granted by the Court at defendant’s request on the basis of the Court’s finding that the ends of 12      justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in 13      a speedy trial.

14      4.       Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the 15      Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which a trial
16      must commence.

17      IT IS SO STIPULATED.
